ROAD MAPS

Credowan limited is providing to [customer] its roadmaps and may continue to do so throughout the duration of any resultant contracts between the Parties. These roadmaps (plans of record, development plans or other such proposed development dates or named documents) only provide an indication of what Credowan limited may develop at that point in time of release (date when such documents or dates are issued) and indicate progress on current intended product development in work at such time. The roadmaps are not intended to provide and should not be interpreted as providing any commitment on the part of Credowan limited to [customer] (or any third party companies to which the product is licensed) that it will either conclude the development work described or further develop or enhance the products in question in any manner unless otherwise agreed by written contract between Credowan limited and [customer].
